ESPOL

ESPOL, A MULTILINGUAL AND MULTICULTURAL SCHOOL

Political Science is a discipline driven by excellence that offers attractive career prospects with a strong international outlook. Living up to this ambition, ESPOL, the European School of Political and Social Sciences, offers an interdisciplinary curriculum focused on political careers and Europe.

As a successor to the School of Social and Political Sciences created within the Catholic University of Lille in 1894, ESPOL emphasises human values and an ethic of responsibility as indispensable qualities for making one's way in today's world.

ESPOL IS FOUNDED ON THREE CORE PRINCIPLES:

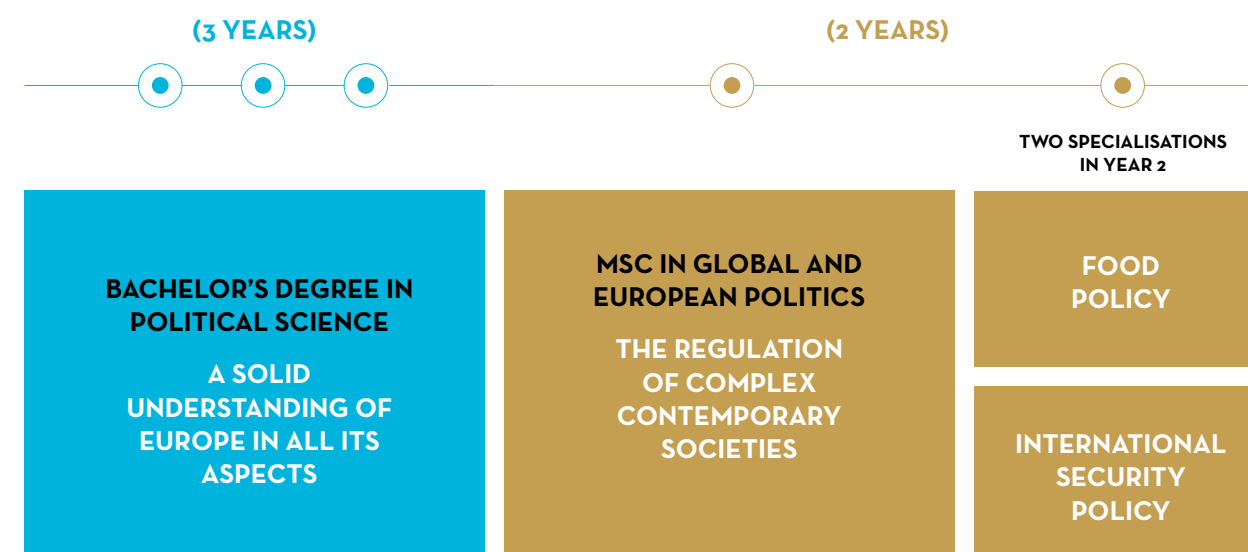

- TEACHING
- RESEARCH
- SERVICE TO SOCIETY

Our bilingual French-English courses provide an original and innovative platform for the teaching of Political Science.

The Bachelor's and Master's degrees provide ESPOL graduates the keys to succeed in an increasingly competitive job market: theoretical knowledge and creativity, professionalism and intellectual curiosity, interdisciplinary skills and a sense of initiative.

European, multilingual, in step with its time, ESPOL provides you with the required skill set to successfully enter the job market in Europe and beyond!

GAP YEAR

SOME GRADUATES CHOOSE TO TAKE A GAP YEAR TO PURSUE A PROFESSIONAL PROJECT OR WORK WITH A NON-PROFIT ORGANISATION. FOR EXAMPLE:

- To do a one-year internship in a large company (Auchan, France Télévision, etc.)
- To go abroad to perfect their knowledge of a foreign language (South Korea)
