

Tuesday 19 November

14:00

Welcome address by Nicolas VAILLANT (Lille Catholic University) (room H 022)
Introduction by Julien NAVARRO (Lille Catholic University)

14:15

Keynote speech by Jan WOUTERS (Full Professor of International Law and International Organizations at KU Leuven, Director of the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies, and coordinator of H2020 project RECONNECT):
Transparency in International and EU Law: the Delicate Balance between Too Little and Too Much (room H 022)

15:00

Panel 1: Transparency in the EU: changing rules, changing behaviours (room H 022)
Chair: Jan WOUTERS (KU Leuven) / Discussant: Giulia Sandri (The Catholic University of Lille)

Irene AGNOLUCCI (King's College London),
Transparency in EU State Aid Law: Should the Commission Lead by Example?
Linda HAMID, Axel MARX & Guillaume VAN DER LOO (KU Leuven),
Transparency in EU Trade Policy: A Systematic Review of the Literature
Maarten HILLEBRANDT (Bielefeld University) & Stéphanie NOVAK (University Ca' Foscari Venice),
An Analysis of Council Argumentation: The Example of Confirmatory Applications in Transparency Policy

17:00

Roundtable/Public event (in French): Transparence: l'Union européenne en fait-elle trop ? (room C 008)

18:30

Evening reception

Wednesday 20 November

9:00

Panel 2: Transparency v. efficiency: the case of the trilogues (room H 022)
Chair: Ben CRUM (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam) / Discussant: Nicola LUPO (LUISS Guido Carli)

9:00

Benjamin BODSON (UCLouvain),
Have the De Capitani and ClientEarth cases really made the EU legislative process more transparent? A critical analysis of the impact of CJEU's recent case-law
Maarten HILLEBRANDT (Bielefeld University) & Päivi LEINO (University of Helsinki),
Constitutional transparency watchdogs and the trilogue method
Emanuele REBASTI (Member of the Legal Service, Council of the EU),
The EU legislative process between transparency and effectiveness: the case of the trilogues
Justin GREENWOOD (Robert Gordon University) & Christilla ROEDERER-RYNNING (University of Southern Denmark),
Organized interests and trilogues: Outsiders inside?

11:00

Panel 3: Transparency and the legitimation of EU governance (room H 022)
Chair: Camille KELBEL (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam) / Discussant: Axel MARX (KU Leuven)

Beth WILTSHIRE (The Democratic Society, Brussels),
Developing a model for Open Government in the EU (2017)
Joris GIJSENBERGH (Radboud University Nijmegen),
Attitudes towards whistle-blowing in the European Union and the ECSC (1957-2019)
Lise FREHEN & Vincent CABY (UCLouvain),
Stakeholders' Opinions, Evidence or EU Law? Repertoire of Legitimation of the European Commission under the Better Regulation Agenda
Luc JUILLET (University of Ottawa),
Can the EU Transparency Register Promote Public Trust in European Institutions?