

Archbishop Desmond Tutu Centre for War and Peace Studies, MA in Politics and International Relations and European Institute

Seminar Series: Responding to Disruption: Government, populism, the pandemic and the breakdown of public trust

30 April The UK, the EU and the Labour Party: Lessons in the Relaunch of Trust
11-12 pm

Dr Richard Corbett, CBE FRSA ex Member of the European Parliament (1996-20), advisor to President of the European Council (2009-14), ex leader of the Labour MEPs (2017-20) and ex spokesman on constitutional questions for the Socialist & Democrat Group in Parliament.

Register in advance here

7 May Sino-American Relations: Is Mistrust Inevitable?
11-12.30 pm

Emeritus Professor Anthony McGrew, Distinguished Professor of Global Public Policy in the College of Liberal Arts at Shanghai University, Shanghai and Deputy Director of the Centre for the History of Global Development.

Register in advance here

14 May The sovereignty illusion: Britain, Ireland and the challenge of European integration
11-12 pm

Dr Michael Holmes, Associate Professor of European Politics at the European School of Politics (ESPOL) in the Catholic University of Lille, and Director of the Lille-Liverpool European Institute.

Register in advance here

21 May Trust, the Paris Agreement and COP26
10-11.30 am

Professor John Vogler, Professorial Research Fellow in International Relations at Keele University.

Register in advance here

28 May Deference, Trust, Populism and Contemporary British Politics
10-11 am

Professor Catherine Marshall, Professor of British Studies at CY Cergy Paris Université in France, Director of the AGORA research centre and of the MA Political Ideas in a Digital Age.

Register in advance here